

The 7th Annual GGIA Partnership In Sustainability Celebration

Spend an Evening at the Home and Gardens of Dr. Michael and Bonnie Durr

Supporting the GGIA Partnership in Sustainability, this year's celebration is being held at the home of renowned plantsmen Dr. Michael Durr. Be sure to join us for this special and unique opportunity to see the personal gardens, one of a kind selections and what might just be the next can't miss plant for the industry.

Join with us, colleagues and friends for an evening of fellowship and networking while helping support the work of GGIA. Enjoy a catered meal served garden-side along with complimentary beverages and blue grass music from the Red Oak String Band.

Individual tickets are $100 each. Tables for 8 are available for $650 and are a great way to reward your valued employees or customers by having them as your guest at this exclusive event. Sponsorships are available and demonstrate your support of GGIA to your colleagues.
