

Don't Miss The Premier Gathering of Horticulture Professionals in Georgia

Join with industry professionals, colleagues and friends from Georgia and beyond for a special night of fellowship benefiting the GGIA Partnership in Sustainability (PISP). The PISP provides the opportunity to support the important work of GGIA beyond the level of membership dues. Click here for more information on the program and how to participate. This year's annual celebration (formerly the GGIA Roundup) is being held in conjunction with the 2016 Academy of Crop Production. A 3 day education event offering advanced level content for growers. Admission to the GGIA celebration is included for all conference attendees. Individual tickets are available at www.ggia.org or by calling 888-GET-GGIA.

The celebration will take place on Sunday, June 12th at the beautiful State Botanical Garden of Georgia from 6:00 to 9:00 pm and includes a full dinner and complimentary beverages. We are pleased to feature a keynote address from Dean Norton, Director of Horticulture at the historic Mount Vernon home and gardens. This is sure to be the premier gathering of horticultural professionals in Georgia this year.

Tickets are available for $100 each. Full tables, seating 8 people are available for $700. Sponsorships are available and include customizable signage for all contributions $500 and up. All sponsors will be included in online and event marketing materials and will be recognized year round as a Partner in Sustainability.

Join us as we celebrate those who support the work of GGIA through the program and welcome horticulture professionals from across the country for the Academy of Crop Production.

For more information on attending or sponsoring this special event, please visit www.ggia.org or call us at 888-GET-GGIA.
